

TENTATIVE PROGRAM

Theme: Advanced medical research and applications on diabetes condition and endocrine functions

31st International Conference on

DIABETES AND ENDOCRINOLOGY

February 06-08, 2023 | Paris, France

<https://diabetes.alliedacademies.com/>

AGENDA

February 06, 2022 | Monday | Millennium Hotel Paris

Opening Ceremony

Keynote Forum

Title: Are we any close to unraveling the mechanism of interactions among susceptibility genes towards Type 1 Diabetes, Gut microbiota along with environmental factors, specifically early diet patterns –A systematic review

Dr. Kulvinder Kochar Kaur

Plenary Sessions

Sessions on: Diabetes Mellitus | Genetic diabetes | Diabetes and Cardiology | Endocrinology and Nephrology

Title: Metal ion dyshomeostasis as a driver of coagulatory complications in diabetes

Dr. Alan J. Stewart

Title: Diagnosis of thyroid follicular neoplasia: opportunities and challenges

Dr. Natalia Bodunova

Title: Diabetic eye disease and research - a patient's perspective

Mrs. Bernadette Warren

Networking & Refreshment Break

Title: AGEs/RAGE axis and Diabetes Mellitus: Mechanisms and Perspectives

Mariyam Khalid

Title: Molecular aspects of thyroid cancer

Dr. Larisa Tsapkova

Title: Effect of performing high-intensity interval training and resistance training on the same day vs. different days in women with type 2 diabetes

Ms. Leila Ghodrat

Title: Improving diabetes care and regulating a healthy lifestyle

Ms. Shahnaz Kenari

Title: The adult weight management program for the prevention of Type 2 Diabetes

Ms. Gillian Bolton

Title: Gestational diabetes and its complications on mother and offspring

Ms. Mira Abed El Kader

Thanks Giving & Closing Ceremony

February 07-08, 2022

Slots are available